Kawabe Memorial House Hires A New Executive Director

Kawabe Memorial House (KMH), a private non-profit organization providing affordable housing since 1969, is pleased to announce the hiring of Emiko Mizuki as its new Executive Director.

As the Executive Director, Mizuki will lead and manage the day-to-day operations of the Kawabe Memorial House. Mizuki will also provide strategic insight and leadership to the KMH Board to ensure the organization's sustainability well into the future for the community.

Mizuki, a longtime resident of Seattle, comes to KMH as an experienced professional who has directed and managed healthcare programs in the community. She managed the Assisted Living and Adult Family Home Programs at Kin On and was the Administrator and Director of Senior Services at Legacy House (an Assisted Living facilities).
